

Please leave the Indiana Law alone concerning telemarketing calls.

I cannot tell you how wonderful this law has made our home life. My husband I both work out of the house and when we are home with our children we do not want to be bothered with these calls. This is one law that I am thankful for. For my family and other families in Indiana, please leave our law as it is.